

What we do

Economic abuse limits women's choices and ability to access safety

Our mission is to raise awareness of economic abuse and transform responses to it

We focus on making change happen through:

Educating communities so girls and women can build economic stability and independence.

Increased understanding of economic abuse so society recognises and can respond to economic abuse.

Improving professional practice so those working with victim-survivors can recognise and respond to economic abuse.

Changes in policies and procedures so organisations understand economic abuse and remove barriers to economic safety.

Changes to national laws so policy-makers reflect an understanding of economic abuse in the decisions they make.

Over time and by working in partnership, we want to support women to be:

- able to access economic resources
- in control of their own economic resources
- economically stable
- compensated for economic harm
- economically equal

Our vision is a world in which women and girls are economically equal and live their lives free of abuse and exploitation
